SACS Oral Professional Presentation Student Learning Outcome Worksheet

At each PhD student's dissertation defense, each committee member needs to review the quality of a student's presentation. The rubrics include organization (25%), visual aids (25%), mastery of materials (25%), and clarity of presentation (25%). This will result in 80% of students graduating from the doctoral program successfully give an effective presentation (>80%). The student must defend the dissertation by answering most of the questions from the committee members during the dissertation defense.

Presentation Scale Scores:

	Poor	Fair	Good	Very good	Excellent	Score
Organization	5%	10%	15%	20%	25%
Visual aids	5%	10%	15%	20%	25%
Mastery of materials	5%	10%	15%	20%	25%
Clarity of presentation	5%	10%	15%	20%	25%
